

I was concerned to hear that a station that I rely on to keep up with community events and family-friendly but important news information might be squeezed out by a new LPFM station. K-LOVE is an important station for our community to have. Please do not replace it with a LPFM station.